NHVAS Accreditation Module selection

Which NHVAS accreditation modules do you wish to apply for or maintain? (select appropriate modules)

Mass Management

Basic Fatigue Management (BFM)

Maintenance Management

Advanced Fatigue Management (AFM)

For Mass or Maintenance Management the Vehicles particulars section must be completed.

For AFM or BFM the Drivers under Fatigue Management section must be completed.

Note: For an individual, evidence of identity (EOI) appropriate for a vehicle registration or driver licensing transaction carried out in that jurisdiction is suitable.

NHVAS accreditation application

Compliance history declaration

Applicants are required to provide detail of any offence against the Heavy Vehicle National Law (HVNL) or a previous corresponding law in relation to the module/s being applied for, or any offence involving fraud or dishonesty punishable on conviction by imprisonment of six months or more in any jurisdiction.

Enter the details in the table below of any contraventions as described above, the applicant or an associate of the applicant has had in the five years immediately before this application was made.

NOTE: Contraventions other than those involving fraud or convictions which include imprisonment include (but are not limited to), offences where a penalty infringement notice has been issued relevant to the NHVAS module application. For a maintenance management application offences for operating unsafe vehicles must be declared. (Defect notices are not required to be declared). Offences for a mass management application include overloading offences and offences for the fatigue modules include work diary breaches.

If you have no contraventions to declare you must enter the word “NIL” in the table below.

Date of offence	Who committed the offence	Type of offence	Location of offence (suburb/town)	Reference no. (if known)

Has the applicant or an associate of the applicant had their accreditation under the HVNL, or a previous corresponding law, amended, suspended or cancelled? If yes, provide full details in the section below.

Yes

No

Enter the details in the box below for any NHVAS accreditation that has been amended, suspended or cancelled.

If there is insufficient space attach a list on a separate page.

Defining associate

Who is an Associate for the purposes of a Compliance History Declaration in an application for accreditation under the National Heavy Vehicle Accreditation Scheme?

Please refer to the Section 5 of the Heavy Vehicle National Law \(HVNL\) for the definition of ‘associate’.

The Compliance History Declaration must be ‘declared to be made after having taken all reasonable steps’ to find out the relevant information.

The NHVR’s policy is that the range of persons an applicant ought reasonably to consider for the purposes of the Declaration includes persons exercising control or influence over any aspect of the business activities the subject of the accreditation application. This includes persons such as managers, schedulers, loaders and drivers.

Vehicle particulars

If you are nominating vehicles for maintenance management you will need to provide proof of vehicle roadworthiness. Please refer to the Inspection Requirements for NHVAS document on the NHVR website for full details.
